CIRCULATION NOTE.

Subject: Question of the inclusion of the name of Sri D.Ananda Rao, Auditor, in the Eligibility List for promotion as Assistant Commissioner.

[illegible] the question of the inclusion of the name of certain Auditors in the list of officers eligible for appointment as Assistant Commissioners was approved in Council on 31.12.46. the case of Sri D. Ananda Rao was reserved for separate consideration as he was fully qualified for inclusion and the confidential reports on his work and character were not unfavourable. The Revenue Commissioner was requested to send a detailed report in regard to this officer with reference to any recent enquiries that might have been held in regard to his conduct or work and to let Government have his considered opinion whether he was eligible for being included in the list. The Revenue Commissioner (Sri V. Venkatesa Ramayya) states that Sri. Ananda Rao is eligible, prima facie, for inclusion and that it is not clear why his predecessor (Rajagopalachetty & Narayana Rao) omitting his name in the list sent to Government. He further states that the confidential reports on this officer and his work have been on the whole fairly satisfactory and in any event, not such as to warrant his case for promotion being passed over or put back when his turn should come for such promotion. The Revenue Commissioner also states that in October 1943, there were charges of corruption against him, when he was Auditor, Tanjore Circle. The Revenue Commissioner (Sri P. Neelakanta Rao) made a detailed enquiry, examined witnesses, scrutinised connected records and made a report that the charges were baseless and that the Auditor should be exonerated of all the charges made against him. Government accepted the findings and the recommendation of the Revenue Commissioner and directed the reinstatement of Sri Ananda Rao. The Revenue Commissioner is therefore, of the opinion that the name of Sri Ananda Rao may be included in the Eligibility List.

If this recommendation were to be accepted, Sri Ananda Rao's rank in the Eligibility List would have to be below Sri A. Kuppiah and above Sri S.A. Venkatachalam.

When the file was submitted to the Minister for Revenue & Public Works, he has minuted as follows-

> "The report on the character and work of this exhibit is not satisfactory. There are certain serious allegations against him. The previous convictions and reason is not mentioned; also for inclusion in the list. His name may not be forwarded for the inclusion in the said list."

The Govt has ordered that the matter may be considered at a meeting of the ~~Govt~~ Council.

Subject:- List of officers eligible for appointment as Assistant Commissioners.

In connection with the proposal to add the names of some Amildars to the list of Officers eligible for appointment as Assistant Commissioners, the Revenue Commissioner recommended that the names of the following 18 permanent and sub-protem Amildars and 4 acting Amildars might be included in the list:

1.	Sri B.P.Saraf, B.A., LL.B.
2.	" D. M. Raghunatha Rao Maney, B.A.	(S.P.T.)
3.	" K. S. Krishnaji Rao, B.A.	"
4.	" V.M.Lingiah, B.A.,LL.B.	"
5.	" G. Gurumurthy Sastry, B.A.	"
6.	" M. Chinnaswamy, B.A.	"
7.	Janab M.O. Rahman Khan.	"
8.	Sri A. Mariappa, B.A.	"
9.	" M. Choodappa, B.A.	"
10.	" M. Marulasiddappa, B.A.	"
11.	" R. Muppinaiya, B.A.	"
12.	" J. N. Nagappa, B.A.	"
13.	" S. V. Muthaiya, B.A.,LL.B.	"
14.	" G. K. Rangiah Naik, B.A.	"
15.	" H. Halappa, B.A.	"
16.	" E. Govindarajalu Nayak, B.A., B.L.	"
17.	" T. V.Seshagiri Rao, B.Sc., LL.B.	"
18.	" V.S.Jayacharya, B.A.,B.L.	"
19.	" B. Sitaraman, B.A.,B.L.
20.	" S. Gopalakrishnachar, B.A.
21.	" T. Hanumiah, M.Sc.
22.	" M. R. Narasinga Rao, B.A., B.L.

In making the above recommendation, the Revenue Commissioner has stated that the names of such of the Amildars who have not qualified themselves by passing the required examinations including Civil I and II as well as the names of the marginally noted Amildars whose confidential reports are not favourable, have been omitted.

1. Sri B.K.Seshagiri Rao.
2. " R. Chandeelal.
3. Janab M. Abdul Aziz.
4. Sri S.N.Chandrasekhara Rao.
5. " K. Venkataramana Setty.
6. " N. Krishnamurthy.

In the list submitted by the Revenue Commissioner, the name of Sri M. Puttaiya does not find a place. He is a permanent Amildar and is a Law Graduate and hence fully qualified for inclusion in the Eligibility List. The latest confidential xxxf report of the Deputy Commissioner, Chitaldrug District, for 1947-48 about this officer is good and he states that the officer 'deserves promotion as an Assistant Commissioner." The Revenue Commissioner while forwarding Sri Puttaiya's representation once before after the last Eligibility List was issued, supported his request and the Deputy Commissioner's recommendation for his inclusion in the list. The Revenue Minister has minuted that his case also may be considered. It is therefore proposed to include his name also in the proposed list.

The Minister for Revenue and Public Works has minuted as under:-

"I agree with the Revenue Commissioner and the Chief Secretary that it is not desirable to include the names of those Amildars who have not passed the Civil Examination. When their names are included in the Eligibility List, the tendency has been to seek exemption. This granting of exemption will not be in the best interests of administrative efficiency.

The case of the permanent Amildar Sri M. Puttaiya had been recommended by the Revenue Commissioner and had been opined by me that his case might be considered when the next list is prepared. The Chief Minister has also endorsed the same. The Revenue Commissioner has also recommended that the name of Sri J.N.Nagappa may be included and placed above the name of Sri S.V.Muthaiya in the list, as he has passed the Civil Examination.

The permanent Amildars, viz., Sri B.P.Saraf and Sri M. Puttaiya and all the 17 s.p.t. Amildars who are fully qualified and recommended by the Revenue Commissioner for inclusion in the Eligibility List of Assistant Commissioners may be selected. In accordance with this principle the names of Amildars who may be included in the Eligibility List are noted below:-

1. Sri B.P.Saraf, B.A., LL.B.
2. " M. Puttaiya, B.A.,B.L.
3. " D.M.Raghunatha Rao Maney, B.A.
4. " K. S. Krishnaji Rao, B.A.
5. " V.M.Lingiah, B.A.,LL.B.
6. " G. Gurumurthy Sastry, B.A.
7. " M. Chinnaswamy B.A.
8. Janab M. O. Rahman Khan.
9. Sri A. Mariappa, B.A.
10. " M. Cheedappa, B.A.
11. " M. Marulasiddappa, B.A.
12. " R. Muppinaiya, B.A.
13. " J. N. Nagappa, B.A.
14. " S. V. Muthiya, B.A.,LL.B.
15. " G.K.Rangiya Naik, B.A.
16. " H. Halappa , B.A.
17. " L. Govindarajalu Naik B.A.,B.L.
18. " T. V. Seshagiri Rao, B.Sc., LL.B.
19. " V. S. Jayacharya, B.A.,B.L.

The matter may be decided at a meeting of the Council."

The Chief Minister has minuted that the matter may be discussed at a meeting of the Council very early, and the Dewan has ordered as under:-

"This subject will be considered at a meeting of the Council on 30th December. The Note of the Honourable Minister for Revenue dated 31st October may be circulated to Council urgently."

STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL.

1st January 1949.

Please refer to letter No. PC 15/48.49 dated 4.10.48 from your predecessor in office in regard to the preparation of the Eligibility list of Amildars to be promoted as Assistant Commissioners. I am desired to state that the name of Sri S. Ananda Rao, Amildar does not find a place in the list of names sent up to Government. He is a Law Graduate and hence need not pass Criminal Higher and Civil Parts I & II. The personal record of the Officer does not seem to show anything very serious against him to prevent his being placed on the Eligibility List. I am to request you therefore to kindly send a detailed letter in regard to this Officer about his character, ability etc, with reference to any recent ~~any~~ enquiries that might have been held in regard to his conduct or work, and to let Government to have your considered opinion whether he is eligible for being included in the List.

D. O. No. P.C 15/48

Dated Bangalore, 4th January 194 9

My dear Sri Srinivasan,

Question of the inclusion of the name of Sri S.Ananda Rao, Amildar, in the Eligibility List for promotion as Assistant Commissioner.

With reference to your Strictly Confidential D.O. letter P.C.6/48-49 of the 1st January 1949 on the above subject, I wish to state that Sri S.Ananda Rao is eligible, prima facie, for the inclusion of his name in the Eligibility List. From the papers in the office, it is not clear to me why my predecessor (Sri S.Narayana Rao) omitted to deal with his case in sending up a list of names for inclusion.

The confidential reports about this officer and his work have been on the whole, fairly satisfactory, and in any event, not such as to warrant his case for promotion being passed over or put back, when his turn should come for any such preferment. In October 1943, there were charges of corruption against him, when he was Amildar, Hiriyur Taluk. The Revenue Commissioner (Sri M.Seshadri) held a detailed enquiry, examined witnesses, scrutinised connected records and made a report that the charges were baseless and that the Amildar should be exonerated of all the charges made against him. Government accepted the finding and the recommendation of the Revenue Commissioner and directed the reinstatement of Sri Ananda Rao. (Vide G.O.No. R 5452-54 L.R 210-43-6 dated 14th March 1944).

In the circumstances and in view of the latest confidential report of the Deputy Commissioner, Chickmagalur District, which speaks well of his character and work as Amildar, Chickmagalur Taluk, I am of the opinion that the name of Sri Ananda Rao may be included in the Eligibility List and his name may be placed below that of Sri R.Muppiniah and above and above that of Sri J.N.Nagappa, whose name comes above that of Sri S.V.Muthaiya.

Yours sincerely,

N. Narayana Iyengar

SUBJECT:

Question of the inclusion of the name of Sri S.Ananda Rao, Amildar, in the Eligibility List for promotion as Assistant Commissioner.

When the question of the inclusion of the names of certain Amildars in the list of Officers eligible for appointment as Assistant Commissioners was approved in Council on 31.12.48, the case of Sri S. Ananda Rao was reserved for seperate consideration as he was fully qualified for inclusion and the confidential reports on his work and character were not unfavourable. The Revenue Commissioner was requested to send a detailed report in regard to this Officer ~~about his character~~ ability, ~~&c.~~ with reference to any recent enquiries that might have been held in regard to his conduct or work and let Government have his considered opinion whether he was eligible for being included in the list. The Revenue Commissioner (Sri V. Vedavyasa Acharya) states that Sri Ananda Rao is eligible, prima facie, for inclusion and that it is not clear why his predecessor (Rajasevasakta S. Narayana Rao) omitted his name in the list sent to Government. He further states that the confidential reports ~~of~~ on this officer and his work have been on the whole fairly satisfactory and in any event, not such as to warrant his case for promotion being passed over or put back when his turn ~~is~~ should come for any such preferment. ~~He is~~ The Rev. Commissioner is keenly of the opinion that the name of Sri Ananda Rao may be included in the Eligibility List.

If this recommendation were to be accepted, Sri Ananda Rao's rank in the Eligibility List would have to be below Sri R. Muppiniah and above Sri C.N.Padmanabhiah.

When the file was submitted to the Minister for Revenue and P.W., he has minuted as follows:-

"The report on the character and work of this Amildar is not satisfactory. There are certain serious allegations against him. The previous Revenue Commissioner had reason in not recommending him for inclusion in the list. His name need not be considered for the inclusion in the said list."

The Dewan has ordered that the matter may be considered at a Meeting of the Council.
